

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

October - September

The Ohio Communication Association exists to provide a forum where professionals and scholars with particular interest in communication may work together to promote common goals. The Ohio Communication Association is a distinguished association serving communication scholars, students and professionals from the state of Ohio. Membership includes a subscription to our newsletter (OCA Conversation), our annual Ohio Communication Journal, and all association mailings. Membership is open to professionals from colleges/universities, elementary and secondary schools, business, undergraduate and graduate students, industry, community colleges, families, management, institutional libraries and other communication related fields of study.
